

Saturday, June 13th

5:30-8:30pm

KNEE DEEP IN JUNE

A culinary celebration of Indiana's Creative Roots.

$50 per person, RSVP

The chefs of Good Life Culinary, Nejlá Routsong and Matt O'Neil, will host a cooking lesson and dinner. This event celebrates the natural beauty of the Brown County setting chosen by Indiana painter T.C. Steele and the poem, Knee Deep In June, written by Steele's good friend James Whitcomb Riley. Guests of this event will also enjoy a special tour of the formal gardens, studio, and House of the Singing Winds. Eric Edberg, professor of music at DePauw University, will perform on his cello. There will be a performance of "Knee Deep in June" by Matt O'Neil, chef and WFHB guest poetry reader.

Menu: Your choice of James Whitcomb Riley's Pan-Seared Filet Mignon or Corn-Dusted Lake Trout, Raggedy Anne's Asparagus and Andy's Wild Garlic Aioli, Secret Garden Herbs and Greens with Day Lily Dressing, Penrod's Potato Terrine with Farm-Kid Crumble, Peaches and Black Raspberries.

RSVP Deadline is June 8th. For more information on this event and to make a reservation, please visit www.tcsteele.org or contact Christine Atkinson at catkinson@dnr.in.gov or (812)677-2003. Pre-payment is required, and this event is rain or shine.

Good Life Culinary Classes and Catering prepares healthful gourmet meals with a focus on nutrition and whole, organic and local ingredients. In addition to catering, they offer private culinary classes for couples, groups and special events. Visit their website <http://goodlifeculinary.com> for more information.

T.C. Steele State Historic Site is 1.5 miles south of State Road 46 at Belmont, between Bloomington and Nashville. The site is part of the Indiana Dept. of Natural Resources, Division of Museums & Historic Sites.